

Wills & Bequests

Thinking of leaving a gift in your Will to the Prader-Willi Syndrome Association of Victoria?

A gift in your Will is a special way to show your support for the work that Prader-Willi Syndrome Association of Victoria does for people who have PWS and their families.

Your gift will help Prader-Willi Syndrome Association of Victoria to continue with its good work to support, educate and advocate on behalf of the PWS community in Victoria.

Types of Bequests

- A specific amount of money or a proportion of the value of your estate
- A gift of real estate
- An investment gift of stocks or bonds
- A residual gift

How to leave a gift in your Will to Prader-Willi Syndrome Association of Victoria:

Step 1

After thinking about your personal wishes, talk to your family and let them know your intentions.

Step 2

Seek professional advice to ensure your wishes are recorded in a legally binding document. See below suggested wording for making a bequest in a Will.

Step 3

Let PWSA Victoria know of your bequest.
See next pages for suggested letters of Confirmation.

Note: If you would prefer to make your bequest anonymously we will respect your wishes.
