Indoor Easter Egg hunt

Where you rest
your head at
night, look for
eggs that shine
so bright.

A place to sit
and watch TV,
an egg is
hidden, come
and see.

Where clothes
get a daily
spin, a hidden
egg waits within.

In a place
where you
brush your
teeth, an egg
hides, just
underneath.

Books and
stories, a world
to explore, find
an egg where
tales are stored.

Where you
find a cozy
seat,
an egg is
near, oh
what a
treat.

Where papers
and pens create
a mess, an egg
hides in the midst, no less.

A place to
work, create,
and think,
search for an
egg with a
colorful wink.

Where your shoes find their
place, an egg
hides with a
cheerful
embrace.

Easter Egg hunt

In the heart of
where meals
are prepared,
another egg
awaits to be
declared

Beneath the
table where
you dine, seek
another egg,
it's quite a find

By the door
where you
enter with
glee, find
another egg
and you'll soon
see

Under the
cushion where
you sit and
read, another
egg hides,
waiting to be
freed.

In the hallway
where footsteps
resound, another
egg waits, not
yet found.

At the highest point where
dreams take flight, the
final egg
waits, shining
so bright.
